Ice Breaking Up—Great Destruction of Property.

ALBANT, Feb. 13.—The ice commenced moving in the river about 8½ this morning. The break up was sudden, attended by a roar like thunder. Within two minutes after the start the waters rose four feet and have been rising ever since, until the present time. The rise is about seven feet at present, and the amount of damage to property is large, th. being ice being blocked below the city. The damage in basins is roughly estimated at $80,000. Boats, pontoons, and craft were washed away by the force of the wave. A heavy towboat and other boats were driven through the first story of the frame freight depot of the New York Central Railroad, and the building which is very long and two stories high, is very much damaged. Two machine shops of Mr. P. C. Nichols, and a small warehouse of Mr. J. D. Sharpen & Co., Memphis, Tenn., were also damaged. The ice has broken through the floor of the iron steeple a railroad was driven through the wall of the Dutch House, which stands at the foot of Main street, between the wall and the quay. Damage to property and provisions in stores are estimated to be $10,000.

THE FOLLOWING LETTER is addressed to BRADSTREET'S PILLS demands the attention from INVADERS.

HAMPTON, N. Y., May 1, 1861.

Bradstreet, I am sorry to inform you that my early voyage would soon terminate. My friends and I are now in a state of health which is declining, and we are compelled to return home. After taking care of my household, we have had no time to go home as well as myself assumed that my friends had a well, healthy manly boy having gone from us.

I have ordered to let nature take its course,
and submit to it as far as possible.

At present we are in a state of health which is declining, and we are compelled to return home. After taking care of my household, we have had no time to go

THE RIVER was still falling a little yesterday—about two inches in twenty-four hours at the head of navigation, and about one-half foot in the canal being dry by the mark. On the falls there were five feet less inches in the pass. The weather continues moderate, though quite cloudy yesterday, indicating snow or rain.

At Pittsburgh, yesterday morning, as we learn by despatched telegraph, there were seven feet water in the canal, and the river, but our noon despatch report the river at a stand, with eighteen feet water in the channel. This, however, is a good tide, and we expect the river to rise early next week for ascending boats.

At Cincinnati, at noon yesterday, the river had fallen ten inches, but at all points was still rising. The river was at a stand at Parkersburg Tuesday evening, with the departure of the Louisa, J. B. Ford, and the Clarendon for lower ports.

The river was still rising at Cincinnati this evening, or by tomorrow, and a heavy rise may be anticipated.

The Mississippi at Memphis, Saturday evening, had fallen to a stand, and the river was still rising from Little Rock that the Arkansas was slowly winding, with four feet water in the channel. The Memphis Enquirer, of Saturday evening, says:

"The river is now back to its former height, with 4,500 boats of the staple."

The Stephen Decatur came up, and will take 500 bales of cotton up the river to Pittsburgh. The Marion departed, taking 3,500 bales to St. Louis.

The Marion will be up today and load with 100 bales of cotton.

The Anglo-Saxon will get off some time during the day, for Cincinnati, with 1,500 bales of cotton, and will bring a large lot of corn, and other kinds of grain.

The Chancellor, Atlantic, J. B. Ford, and Franklin, passed Monday around South Bend.

The Cumberland was falling slowly Monday with an abundance of water, however, on the shoals for all navigable purposes. The Clipper arrived at Nashville with the Ohio and the departure were the John Gant and the Wabash.

The Wabash river at Vincennes, on Tuesday, was rising slowly.

The Trio, Capt. Everhart, is now at the city wharf loading for Memphis, for which port its advertisement is to start Friday.

TIGHT PAPERS.—Here is another queer act of the Memphis.

A man was arrested by the police officer for carrying for steamboat passengers without a license. He was fined twenty-five dollars, and sent to the changing in default of payment.

The huge Maria Deming, an interloping craft, left New Orleans on Saturday with 1,200 tons of groceries for Cincinnati. She is owned by the firm, Harrison & Hooper, 2400 bbls. molasses, 1000 lbs. coffee, and 500 bbls. sugar.

The John Rainie arrived last night from New Orleans with a fine trip of freight, and will be in the market to-morrow, her gentlemanly crew, we are induced to say, for a manifest and memorandum.

The John Rainie, in charge of Capt. Undine, was arrested by the police officer for carrying for steamboat passengers without a license. He was fined twenty-five dollars, and sent to the changing in default of payment.

The market for lard warrants is very dull, we quote at the following figures:
